

Foreign Missions Engage Society

IT IS Tuesday that the Japanese High Mission will arrive in Washington with Viscount Ishii at its head; and already there is a buzz of excitement, and best lawn party frocks are being freshened up for the events that are sure to follow. The scene of action—that is, for the most pronounced event—will be the Pan American Building, and while the President will entertain Viscount Ishii and his suite, he and Mrs. Wilson will appear in the really more brilliant role of guests of honor at the entertainment at the Pan American Union.

A wonderful scene, in which history was not repeating itself, was that at Fort Myer, Va., Monday afternoon, when the President and Mrs. Wilson and thousands of other notables saw Secretary of War Baker bestow upon the 1,800 sun-browned men who had seen three months of hard training in the reserve officers' camp their commissions.

Members of the permanent French High Mission, members of the Russian, Belgian and Norwegian missions were all there, many of the men in their gay uniforms, red trousers and blue coats or sky blue coats and odd-colored trousers, which, after all, were wholly immaterial with such handsome boots below them.

Boston and vicinity proves a strong lure to Washington folk just now, and the many prominent weddings which fill the last of August and the first days of September are an added attraction. Miss Frances Hoar left Washington Wednesday for Boston to attend the Burgess wedding and almost all the others of importance scheduled for that period. She recently returned from Fort Monroe, where she and her mother, Mrs. Gillett, spent several days, being entertained constantly. Miss Louise Hoar is already making a round of visits at Milton and other places in and near Boston, attending weddings.

William S. Hogg, U. S. N., will leave town the first of September for a visit to Boston and Marblehead, and will attend the wedding of Miss Geraldine Boush, daughter of Admiral and Mrs. Clifford J. Boush, at St. Michael's Church. Mr. Edwin F. A. Morgan, a Harvard boy, will leave his home in Chevy Chase this week to attend the wedding, August 23, of Miss Ruth Herrick and Mr. G. Newell Ford in St. Michael's Church, Milton. He will be an usher and will make a series of visits when in that vicinity. Mr. Morgan is the son of Dr. and Mrs. James Dudley Morgan.

Mr. Ector O. Munn, son of Mrs. Charles A. Munn, has gone to Boston to serve as an usher at the wedding of Miss Katharine Herrick and Mr. Houghton Pierce Stearns, which takes place in Milton at St. Michael's Church and precedes the other Herrick wedding by three days.

Washington dressmakers are simply swamped with trousseaus, and will not get a moment of vacation in the next three months. Weddings will be a matter of almost daily happening until the last bachelor soldier is well on the other side of the ocean.

Food conservation still continues to be the theme everywhere, and one hears above the din of an orchestra the hum of an automobile—"No, I put it up by the cold water process," or "I washed it three hours," or "It makes no cooling at all." And while it is all going on Mrs. Josephus Daniels mildly pulls out an old family recipe for dried oaks, without which no Southern soup pot is finished. Mrs.

Entertain—Dinner Party.
Mr. and Mrs. Robert Harter, of Washington, who are occupying their beautiful home, Caradoc Hall, at Leesburg, for the summer, have almost a continuous series of house parties, and last week, Representative and Mrs. Dudley Donnell, Representative and Mrs. Oldfield, Dr. Brauner Hietfeld, U. S. N.; Col. and Mrs. Earle I. Pfeiffer, and others were in the party. Mr. Frederic A. Keop and Mrs. Arthur Willert have gone for a motor trip through the White Mountains.

Dinner and Theater Party.
Lieut. Commander Hayne Ellis, U. S. N., and Mrs. Ellis, entertained at dinner on the Army and Navy roof garden last evening. Miss Marie Eugenia Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George R. Smith, and Lieut. Commander Hollis Taylor, U. S. N., whose marriage will take place September 22, Miss Smith, sister of the bride elect, was the only other guest. Lieut. Commander Ellis and Commander Winston were roommates at the Academy, and Commander Ellis will be best man at the wedding, while Miss Smith will be her sister's only attendant. Following the dinner last evening.

The Ambassador of Italy, Count Macchi di Celere, has gone to Saratoga, N. Y., to spend several days. Countess di Celere, who with their children is at her summer home at Blue Ridge Summit, will join him there.

Mr. Brambilla, counselor of the Italian Embassy, has returned to Washington from Hamilton, Mass., where he was the guest for ten days of Mr. and Mrs. George von Lengerke Meyer and their daughter, Miss Julia Meyer, to whom he is engaged.

The Duke di Sangro, attaché of the Italian Embassy, and Mr. Andrea Geimer, Celestino, dining secretary, have returned to Washington from Newport, Dr. Florida, physician attached to the embassy staff, has returned from Atlantic City.

Mr. Thomas Spring Rice, cousin of the Ambassador, and second secretary of the British Embassy, has returned to Washington from North Carolina and Virginia, in which States he has made visits.

ing Commander and Mrs. Ellis and join the Hon. Mrs. O'Brien, who has a cottage there for the season.

Among Diplomats.

The Embassy of Japan will be the center of diplomatic life for the next week, and Viscount Ishii, and Mr. Almaro Sato, the Japanese ambassador will be the central figures. The Viscount heads the Japanese mission, and the Belmont house in New Hampshire avenue will be quite ready for his occupancy when he arrives in Washington about Tuesday. Mr. Hanhara, for a long time attached to the Japanese Embassy here in various capacities, and since then, Japanese consul at San Francisco, is accompanying the mission to Washington.

The British Ambassador has gone to Woods Hole, Mass., to join Lady Spring Rice and their children. The Ambassador has been staying with Mr. Thomas Beaumont Hobler, second counselor of the embassy, who has a house in Massachusetts avenue. The Japanese mission will be the center of the atmosphere of incessant work at the embassy.

Lady Spring Rice has quite a flower and vegetable garden connected with the place they occupy at Woods Hole and their children spend almost their entire time outdoors.

Another interesting diplomatic family enjoying farm life just now is that of the Minister of China, Mr. Kuyin Wellington Koo, who, early in the season took the Frank Lee Mansion, at Garrison, Md., and established Mme. Koo and their little son there. They have all the joys of farm life including tennis lawns with shade trees, a big garden, cows, chickens and other of the animal kingdom generally seen about a farm.

The Minister has motored back to Garrison to be with his family, and in fact, makes the trip in his large and comfortable car several times a week, always discharging the steam or electric car as a mode of transportation.

Adelaide Pepper, was her sister's matron of honor, and the party of bridesmaids included Miss Frances Wharton Scott, Miss Dorothy E. Newbold, Miss Jean W. Thompson, Miss Sarah C. Neilson, Miss Cornelia C. Leidy, Miss Gailor Owen Baird, Miss Margaret W. Hattie, Miss Virginia Roberts, Miss Mary D. Thayer, and Miss Elizabeth Cushman, of Albany, N. Y. Miss Reta D. Krumbhaar was flower girl.

Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Stuart Bolling, daughter of Bartlett Bolling of the University of Virginia and the late Altha Stuart Bolling, to Lieut. Thomas H. Todd, U. S. R. C. Mr. Todd was recently graduated from the training camp at Fort Myer and holds a commission in the Field Artillery.

The wedding took place Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock in St. Paul's Church, Charlottesville, Va. The Rev. Beverly D. Tucker, Jr., officiated, assisted by the Rev. H. B. Lee. Only members of the two families and a few intimate friends were present.

Among the guests from out of town were Attorney General Gregory and Assistant Attorney General and Mrs. Carroll Todd, brother and sister-in-law of the bridegroom. The bride belongs to one of the oldest and most distinguished families of Virginia. Bollingbrook, the old Bolling home in Petersburg, is one of the handsomest and most historic places in Virginia. The bridegroom was formerly an assistant United States attorney in the Department of Justice. In his college days he was a football captain of the University of Virginia, and was graduated in law from that college in 1915.

Another officer of the reserves was married yesterday, Lieut. Henry Wood Wiley, son of Capt. and Mrs. Henry Wiley, of Washington, taking as his bride, Miss Jean Morris Lillie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Lillie, of Haverford, Pa.

The ceremony was performed at noon, in St. Mary's Episcopal Church, Ardmore, and Miss Theodora Keith Lillie, attended her sister as maid of honor. Mrs. Frank C. Roberts was matron of honor, and Miss Edith Earle, Miss Katherine Tenney, Miss Katharine Z. Ogden, and Miss Roberta and Miss Elizabeth Wiley, sisters of the bridegroom, served as bridesmaids.

Mr. Donald Lincoln, of Cleveland, was best man, and the ushers included: Mr. William Fillebrown, of Washington; Mr. Horace Wyman, of Worcester, Mass.; Mr. Benjamin Bullock, 3d, Mr. Phillip P. Smith, Dr. Harold Austin, and Mr. Henry Austin.

All of the men of the wedding party were in uniform, and a small reception was held at Brimwood, the home of the bride's parents.

A number of friends of Capt. and Mrs. Wiley went from Washington to Haverford, for the wedding.

The marriage of Mrs. Bonnie Hertrige and Lieut. Allen E. Drake, of the ordnance section, National Army, took place Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 at the home of the bride in Carlisle Court, the Rev. Forrest J. Prettyman, chaplain of the Senate, officiating. In the presence of a company of relatives and friends. The bride was attended by her sister-in-law, Mrs. C. W. Reed, and the best man was Senator Don Francisco Sanchez, Latin secretary of the Guatemalan legation. The house was beautifully decorated, and the bride and groom stood beneath a bower of palms and white roses. The bride wore a gown of white crepe de chine, with a large white hat and a corsage of white roses. Mrs. Reed wore white mull, with a white hat. She carried yellow roses. After the ceremony the bride and groom left in automobiles for Alexandria, where they were entertained at luncheon by Mrs. Armstrong. Lieut. and Mrs. Drake left last evening for a wedding trip to Atlantic City.

The bride wore a girlish frock of white chiffon, having many silver stitches. The chignon train was bordered with white satin, with touches of silver and orange blossoms. Her voluminous tulle veil was simply banded about her collar with orange blossoms, and she carried lilacs of the valley.

Miss Maud Kahne, daughter of Otto Kahn, was the bride's only attendant. She wore a mauve chiffon slip with a plaited cape to match, falling from a flat lace collar in the back to the hem of the slip. The flowing sleeves were of chiffon, and her large round hat was of chiffon to match.

Mr. Guernsey's brother, Nathaniel T. Guernsey, Jr., was his best man. Mr. Stanley L. Wolf, of the bride's brother-in-law, and Mr. W. Ross Proctor, Jr., seated the guests. Capt. Guernsey was graduated from Yale last year, having been a fullback on the Yale football team for several years. He received his commission in the Reserve Officers' training camp at Fort Myer. Mrs. Guernsey made her debut three years ago, and is a member of the Junior League.

Capt. George Dobbin Penniman, Jr., of Baltimore, who also graduated from Fort Myer, was married yesterday at St. Thomas' church, Garrison Forest in the Green Spring Valley, to Miss Lucy Terrell Dawson. Capt. Penniman has been assigned to duty at Camp Lee, the national army cantonment at Petersburg, Va., and he and his bride will go to that city September 27.

A pretty but simply arranged wedding took place at the Eastern Protestant Church at 5:30 o'clock last evening, when Miss Olive Rosalyn Budd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Budd, was married to Mr. Raymond Boyer, of New York. The Rev. Dr. Elliott, pastor of the church, officiated, and the bride was attended by her sister, Miss Vera Budd. Mr. Dave Neilson, of New York, was best man, and Mr. Allen Lohr and Mr. Jack Hardie served as ushers. There was no reception following the ceremony, and the bride couple left early in the evening for a wedding journey.

A wedding of very particular interest to Washington folk took place yesterday at the summer home of Mr. and Mrs. George Wharton Pepper, at Northeast Harbor, Me., when their daughter, Miss Charlotte Eleanor Pepper, and Lieut. Fitz Eugene Dixon Newbold were married. Mrs. Theodore Paul, formerly Miss

Maj. Gen. J. Franklin Bell, commanding the Eastern Department, has been assigned to the command of the Seventy-seventh division of the new national army, to be mobilized at Camp Upton, Long Island, N. Y., and in Washington on his way to his new post.

Gen. Bell was chief of staff, in the Taft administration, and he and Mrs. Bell were two of the most popular army folk who have ever held the position. It was while Gen. Bell was at Fort Myer, that the beautiful dining-room, the chief feature of the commandants house, was built, and the wealth of treasures they gathered in all parts of the world were housed there. Gen. Bell came to Washington from Fort Leavenworth, and later went to the Philippines, the Pacific Coast and the Mexican border. Mrs. Bell and Mrs. Ernest Garlington are sisters, and the visit of Gen. Bell is of more than usual interest socially as well as officially.

Capt. Oscar W. Underwood, Jr., son of Senator Underwood, of Alabama, will be one of the officers on the staff of Maj. Gen. William A. Really Removes Hair
Roots, or Costs Nothing
(Phenetic, the New Wonder-Worker)

With out doubt the greatest thing yet discovered for hair-disfigured woman, d is the wonderful phenetic method. It has none of the disadvantages of electrolysis or depilatories, and, best of all, it removes the hairs entire, roots and all. It does this instantly, leaving the skin so smooth and soft that no one can tell the place was ever the possessor of a moustache or other hairy growth.

Phenetic is nonodorous, nonirritating and so harmless a child could use it without any ill-effect. A stick of this remarkable substance, accompanied by simple instructions, can be obtained at any drug store, and its price will be refunded upon request in case of dissatisfaction. But what woman would not be satisfied and delighted after seeing those ugly hairs come out—including the roots—with her own eyes?—Adv.

TODAY'S BEAUTY HELP

We find you can bring out the beauty of your hair to its very best advantage by washing it with canthrox. It makes a very simple, inexpensive shampoo, which cleanses the hair and scalp thoroughly of all the dandruff, dirt and excess oil, leaving a wonderful, clean, wholesome feeling. After its use you will find that the hair dries quickly and evenly, is never streaked in appearance and is always bright, soft and fluffy. So fluffy, in fact, that it looks more abundant than it is, and so soft that arranging it becomes a pleasure. Just use a teaspoonful of canthrox, which you can get from any good druggist, dissolve it in a cup of hot water. This makes a full cup of shampoo liquid—enough so it is easy to apply it to all the hair instead of just the top of the head.—Adv.

What to Use and Avoid On Faces that Perspire

Skin, to be healthy, must breathe. It must be kept permeable, open, through the pores, its share of the body's waste material. Certain creams and powders clog the pores, interfering both with elimination and breathing, especially during the hot period. If more women understood this, there would be fewer self-spoiled complexions. If they would use ordinary mercurized wax they would have healthy complexions. This remarkable substance actually absorbs a bad skin, also unclogging the pores. Result: The fresher, younger under-skin is permitted to breathe and to show itself. The exquisite new complexion gradually creeps out, one free from any appearance of artificiality. Obtain an ounce of mercurized wax from your druggist and try it. Apply nightly like cold cream for a week or two, washing it off mornings.

To remove wrinkles, here's a marvelously effective treatment, which also acts naturally and harmlessly: Dissolve an ounce of powdered axolite in a half pint of pitch hazel and use as a wash lotion.—Adv.
